INTERIOR PERSPECTIVE

THE PHOENIX

Mount Vernon College
2100 Foxhall Road North West
Washington, DC 20007

President Jane Evans

Alma Mater

I

Our Alma Mater glorious,
With loving hearts and proud,
We crown thee all victorious
And sing thy praise aloud.
In loyalty we serve thee
And strive to heed thy call,
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Through self to conquer all.

II

You give unfailing kindness
If trouble meets us here;
You foster all our pleasures
And make them seem more dear.
Nor time, nor care, nor sorrow
Can these fair days erase,
But they, with each to-morrow
Help us new tasks to face.

III

Like Breath of Spring's fresh morning
That lifts the heart to song.
When courage droops and wavers
And paths seem gray and long,
Will come thy dauntless spirit
To help us on the way.
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Hold fast thy tender sway.

IV

The changing years may bring us
Some longed for dream of bliss,
Yet memory will cherish
A sympathy we miss.
In hours of joy or sadness,
Whate'er our need may be,
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Thy children turn to thee.

1. Faculty members look over an article before convocation. 2. SR. class members line up to march in the chapel. 3. President Evans about to enter the chapel. 4. A student and a faculty member preparing for convocation. 5. Srs. pose together after convocation.

CONVOCATION

Convocation is the official opening of the school year. It is the first occasion for the seniors to be recognized by wearing their caps and gowns. The faculty and administration also dress in gowns and come into the ceremony in a processional. The convocation exercises recognize students with academic honors and scholarship recipients. The ceremony is held in the chapel and is conducted with esteem and respect. Students approach the upcoming academic year with enthusiasm because of this tradition.

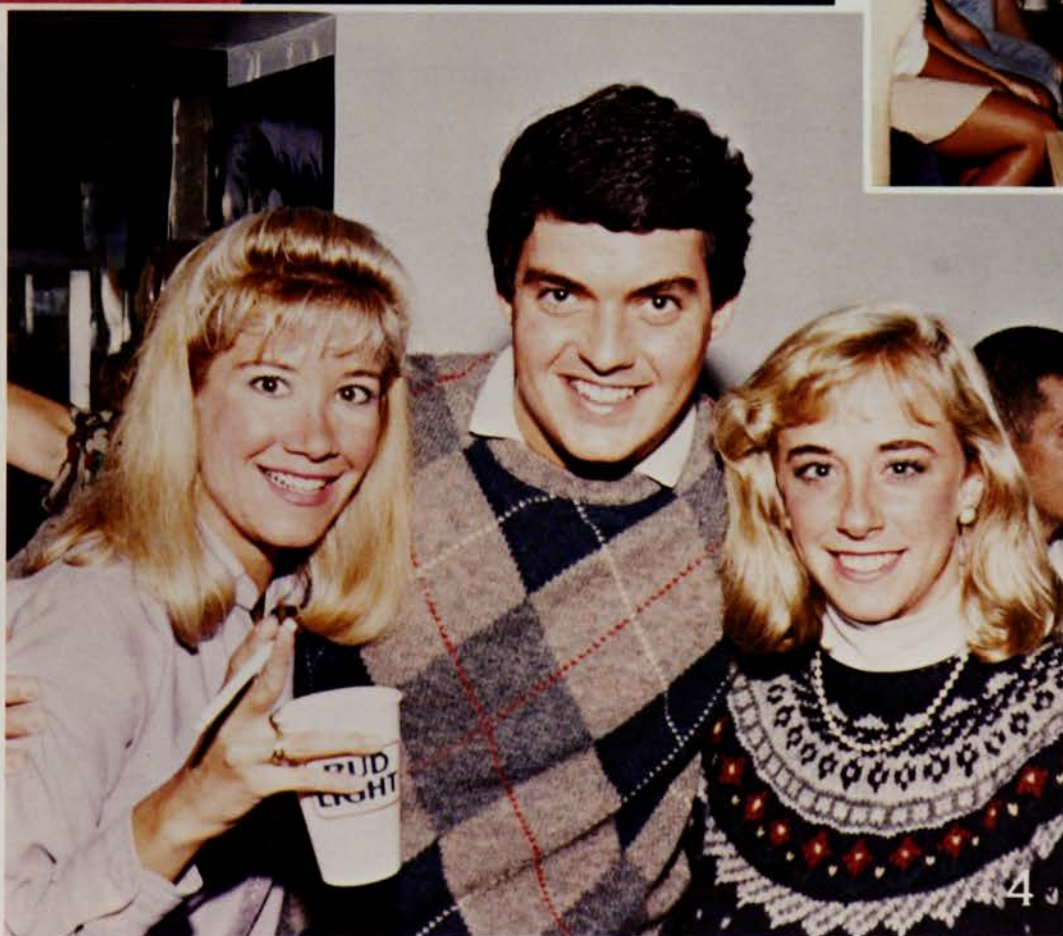

1. Faculty members prepare to march in the chapel for convocation. 2. Presenting Academic Honors, are Dean Carroll, President Evans, and Reverend Johnson. 3. Delivering the convocation address is Dr. Elizabeth Tidball. 4. Modeling senior robes are Mimi Maechling, Louise Rookee, and Pam Widge.

Welcome Back

Orientation week was filled with many fun activities including the Welcome Back Party at the Pub. There were many returning upperclassmen as well as new and excited freshmen. The Pub featured a band called the SPARKPLUGS who played a variety of music to suit almost everyone's tastes. Many people were there from Mt. Vernon as well as many eligible young men from surrounding colleges. The atmosphere around the pub seemed to be quite cheerful as everyone talked about their summers, past school years, and expectations for the following year. The freshmen, anxious and excited, mingled with friends they had made during orientation and new friends they had met at the Pub. Overall, Pub night was a full success and everyone had a nice time talking with friends and listening to the band.

1. Francis, Patrice and Kim are among the enthusiasts at the pub night. 2. Mary looks like she's up to something. 3. Solid Gold dancers! Put 'em on T.V. 4. Lee Riddle and friend Joe are sitting back to enjoy happy hour. 5. Dancing the night away; Kitty and company fill the dance floor.

1. Kim and Bugs give the 'O-TAY' to the photographer. 2. Martha is more than happy to welcome people to the pub. 3. Mary Carol, Allison, and their friend Duane chat while listening to the Sparkplugs. 4. Picture Perfect! 5. Happy to be back the first pub party brought old friends back together.

BIG SISTER LITTLE SISTER

On September 19, 1986 many freshmen and seniors gathered for the Big/Little Sister reception at Pelham dorm. Many chatted about the exciting new school year. Each freshman was given a pretty red carnation. The final moment came when each senior pulled a freshman name out of a hat. The other half of the reception was spent getting to know one's big or little sister. Many students were happy to find out that they had many things in common with one another.

2. There is nothing like a hug from your big sister. 3. Senior big sister Ann, smiles as she receives her corsage.

1. Tracey Jones worked hard to make the reception a success. 2. Dani, Kitty, Carla and Danielle want everyone to know how much fun they had at the reception. 3. The search had begun for a big sister. 4. Freshman, Lisa Lackovic pinned on her own corsage given to her by her big sister.

LIFE ON CAMPUS

The student life here is not limited in any way. The on campus activities such as flag football and soccer keep the students busy. The on campus pub, now called the Agora Club specializes in happy hour every Friday where students from Georgetown, A.U., Maryland, George Washington, and others come to socialize with Mt. Vernon women. D.J.'s and live bands keep the students entertained as they sit back and enjoy a few beers. It's a great place to meet people. During the fall and spring seasons, the pool is a favorite spot for those warm days.

Student life is not just limited to on campus activities. Since Georgetown is right down the road, many of the students take advantage of it. A favorite bar is the Third Edition as well as a number of other pubs in the area. Night life is not the only reason students go to Georgetown. Georgetown Park is a great place to get some shopping done. Students do not stop at Georgetown because just a few miles away is downtown Washington, D.C. There students can enjoy such sights as the monuments, White House and the capitol just to name a few. Another attraction is the mall grounds which is surrounded by all the Smithsonian museums. This is a favorite spot when one has some free time. The National Zoo is popular among the students as well. There one can see the famous panda bears Ling-Ling and Sing-Sing.

All of these attractions in the area keep the students busy taking advantage of their location. There is so much to do and see that it can wear the students out. All in all, student life is in no way dull.

1. Tracy and Betsy toast to the new year.
2. Cha and Bugs post with their new found friends. 3. Studying in the library is common because of the noise in the dorms.

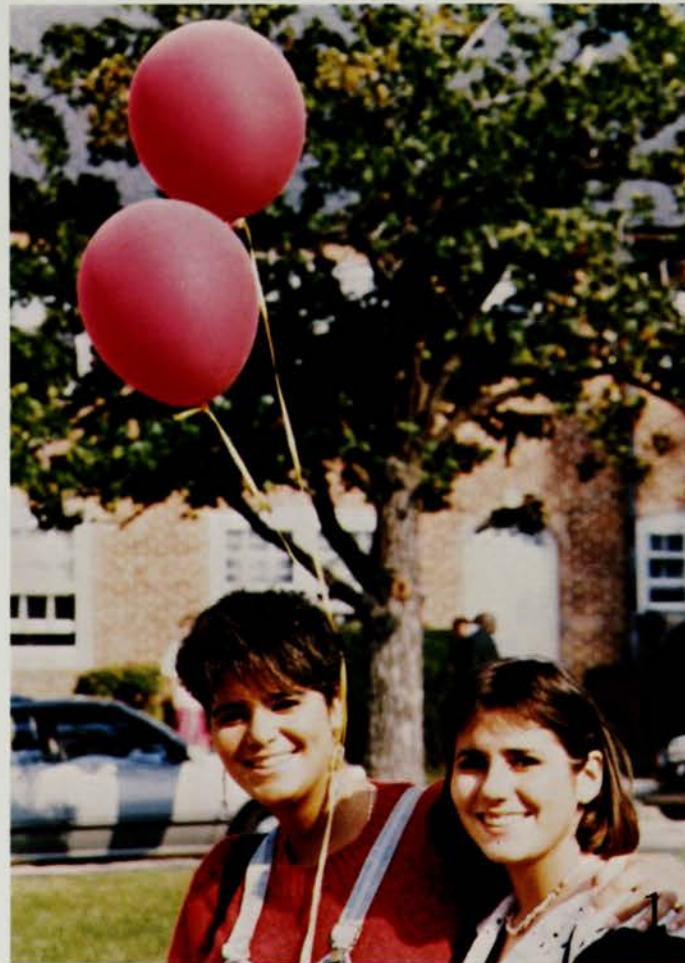

2. Kerstin Revuetta taking a break in the campus Quad. 3. Betsy Orlando, manager of the Agora Club, sits for a rest after a long day of work. 4. Students enjoy their dinner while being entertained for the Oktoberfest.

1. Within the first week the transfer students went dessert hopping to get to know one another. 2. Barbara Gorski takes the opportunity to play with the camera while watching the Ted Koppel show. 3. Getting to know new people the object of the pub parties. 4. Relaxing before class this girl smiles for the camera. 5. Hey, Everyone loves the camera.

1. Eleanor Burke and friends sit and relax in the Agora Club. 2. Heidi smiles for the camera. 3. Bugs says Hi! to everyone. 4. Everyone that went to the Ted Koppel show posed for a picture.

1. Close friends by the first day Mara and Magda kept a couple balloons to remind them of the first day of school. 2. Lori wanted a few of the first fallen leaves of fall. 3. At the International Buffet there was a variety of foods to choose from. 4. Denise, Kim, Whitney and friend want everyone to know what good buds they are.

1. Even the workers had fun at the first pub party of the year. 2. The field is a popular place for both athletes and studiers. 3. There is nothing like picking up the first fallen leaves. 4. Dean's List recipients received special honors at the reception held in their honor. 5. Dancing and socializing were the main reasons the first pub party was such a success.

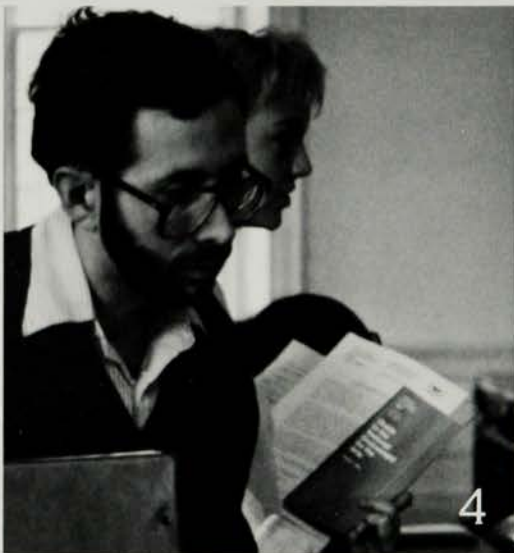

INTERNSHIP FAIR

The Internship Fair took place on Wednesday October 8, 1986 in Post Hall. This highly publicized event drew out many students and about 15 employers.

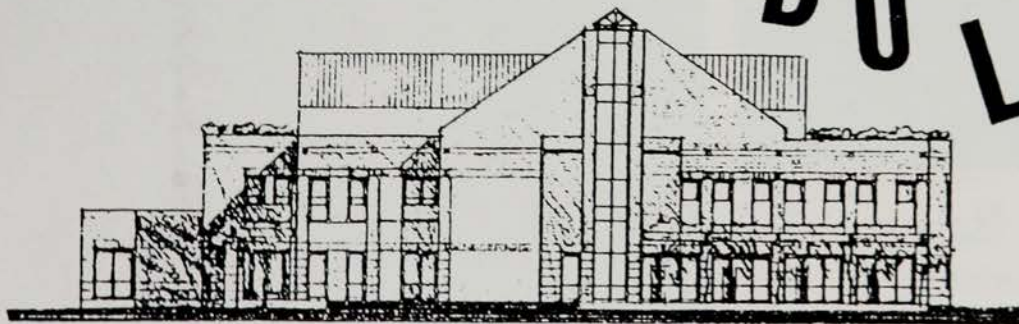

"The purpose of the Internship Fair is to provide students with an opportunity to explore careers and Internship opportunities in the Washington, D.C. area," states Lucy Hoffman, coordinator of career planning. Ms. Hoffman goes on to say that "both students and the organization representatives are benefited by the fair. The representatives are eager to meet students and hire them as interns or even part-time employees."

Internships are extremely important to a student's future career. Internships often lead to a permanent position in a specific field. They are rewarding jobs which also give credit toward the student's degree.

All in all, the Internship Fair was a great success. It generated a lot of interest out of the students and gave them the chance to talk with different representatives of various fields.

I would like to dedicate my page to Mom and Dad because without you none of this would be possible. I love you very much.

In sober mind and state I leave the following:

Ginny you get the broom. Honor you get the crush, Linus you get a bigger appetite. Louise you get a potatoe head. Lynn you get less spontaneity. Hardie you get a banana rang rang. Tina you get John. Amy you get more days in a week for dates. Mimi you get me from the knees down. Lucy you get to give me your looks. Fannie you get my wonderful writing ability.

To all you guys we have had some great times! It wouldn't have been the same without you all. I'll miss all those nights at the 3rd. Frantically waiting for our crushes to come in. By no I'm sure I'm saying Roger? ... Roger who??? At least I'd better be. Everyone keep in touch and I love you all!! By the way did we ever have that great party we planned? Bye Bye everyone!!

The Admissions office works year round recruiting students. They look for student with potential for success. "Prospectives" must have good academic standing, an evenly distributed class curriculum and extracurricular activities. In recent years Admissions has been emphasizing the importance of extracurricular activities in their selection of new students. This provides for a well rounded student: exactly what the college wants.

Students come from all over the country as well as many foreign countries. Each year the office receives about 350 applications. There are also a great many transfer students each year. Because the school is nationally recognized for its Interior Design Program, many women transfer into the school later in their college career. The Admissions office is looking for students that want an education in a small, personal environment.

The academic structure is very strong and based on two important principles. MVC is a multi-disciplinary study program and an interdisciplinary study program. These methods structure the curriculum flexibly; a student can create her own major. The Interior Design program as well as the Human Development program are two very competitive fields of study. Rigorous classes mixed with the internship experience make for a unique professional background.
